Jesper Landberg

Design engineer. I build the visual side of digital products: how they look, move and respond. I work between design and engineering, with studios, product teams and brands. Independent since 2014, with 100+ launches and 80+ industry awards.

Find me shitposting on X, teasing work on Instagram and thinking out loud on LinkedIn, or reach out at jesper@alpacka.studio for a proper talk.
